

LIBERTY SEMINARS SLOVENIA

The Liberty Seminars are a life-time opportunity to DISCUSS, PRESENT & DEBATE human rights, markets, public policies and law in breathtaking scenery of the Julian Alps. Two one-week seminars—Liberty Camp and Liberty Academy—provide an opportunity to delve into current economic and political topics.

The 8th annual Liberty Seminars will be held between September 23-28, 2015 at Hotel Jezero, Lake Bohinj, Slovenia.

The Liberty Seminars are one of a kind project as they bring together a widely diverse group of attendees and lecturers, both in terms of their national and cultural backgrounds, as well as their professional and educational paths. In fact, the first seven editions of project brought together more than 340 participants from 44 countries,

The participants of the Liberty Seminars are challenged every step of the program, as small group discussions, presentations, and group debates provide an excellent platform for sharpening the mind and skills. The Liberty Seminars are offered as an accredited course within the Atlas Leadership Academy. The participants and lectures of the Liberty Seminars take one afternoon off their intense academic program to enjoy Slavica waterfall and Lake Bohinj.

LIBERTY SEMINARS SLOVENIA

Every year since 2008, 40 individuals from all over the world get an opportunity to DISCUSS, PRESENT & DEBATE human rights, markets, public policies, and law in breathtaking scenery of the Julian Alps of Slovenia.

The Liberty Seminars Slovenia welcome undergraduates, graduates, and young professionals from any background to spend an unforgettable week with other exceptional individuals who share a passion for liberty.

To spend an unforgettable week with other 40 exceptional individuals who share a passion for the ideas of liberty apply to the 2015 Liberty Seminars HERE (<http://www.liberty-seminars.com/>) by August 1, 2015.