

University of Donja Gorica and Spiru Haret University, Bucharest, Romania signed a cooperation agreement

University of Donja Gorica hosted Prof. Manuela Epure, PhD, MCIM Vice Rector of Research & International Relations at Spiru Haret University who gave a lecture on 21st & 22nd March on the topic - Research methods in the social sciences.

During her lecture, Prof. Manuela Epure presented the quantitative and qualitative research methods, the ways of networking and the available research tools.

Cooperation agreement between University of Donja Gorica and Spiru Haret University, Bucharest, Romania was signed on March 22nd in the Rector's Office at the University of Donja Gorica. Both institutions want to develop and sustain activities that will strengthen the cooperation, improve the skills of their students by promoting the exchange of their experiences and knowledge.

The agreement between two Universities presents the agreement on cooperation based on the principles of partnership, in order to increase the efficiency of educational processes, joint research, joint conferences and workshops, exchange of publications and joint educational projects. An integral part of the agreement is the action plan of agreed actions.

In addition to the participation in joint projects and exchange of students, this cooperation opens the possibility of the occasional guest appearances and holding lectures by eminent professors, on both Universities, University of Donja Gorica and Spiru Haret University.

The lecture held by prof. Dr. Epure is the beginning of cooperation with a foreign universities in the framework of the series of lectures entitled "Escape from the province", organized by the Rector of the University of Donja Gorica, prof. Veselin Vukotic, PhD.